Forum Engages Dr. Guy Claire

"Administrative" Subject To Be Discussed by Souderton Att.
At Public Forum

AUTHOR, PROFESSOR, LAWYER

Dr. Guy S. Claire, practicing lawyer in Souderton, Pa., will lead the Forum discussion on "Administrative" in Bomberger Hall at 3:30 p. m., Sunday, February 23.

This subject is the title of Dr. Claire's latest book, and deals with administrative law, which determines the relationships between private citizens and administrative officials. In recent years, this study has occupied Dr. Claire's attention as a leisure time pursuit, and his book is the outgrowth of this genuine interest in administrative law.

Dr. Claire has studied both in this country and abroad, and has been awarded five degrees from four institutions. In 1923, he was graduated magna cum laude from the University of Southern California, where he is a member of Phi Beta Kappa. He received his law training at the University of Pennsylvania, where he was awarded the degree LL. B. Further study in that institution earned for him the award of the degree A. M. Upon returning to the west, Dr. Claire continued his training at Stanford University, and was awarded the Ph. D. degree. The honor of being awarded the degree D. C. L. was conferred upon Dr. Claire by Oxford University in England during his travel and study abroad over a period of two years.

Dr. Claire has had a wide teaching experience, which began in the Wharton School at the University of Pennsylvania. After two years there, he became a teaching fellow in the law school at Stanford University. He left this position to teach law at R. U. State University, in Colorado, and later was professor in the same subject at the University of Oregon. In 1933, Dr. Claire retired from the teaching profession to establish a private practice of law in a nearby community.

It is expected that an administrator in the W. P. A., from Washington, D. C., will address the March Forum on the subject of social security.

WOMEN DEBATERS TO COMBAT PENN STATE IN HOME MEET

Open Forum on Socialized Medicine
Features Meeting of Club

Ursinus co-ed debaters will meet Penn State in a home contest on Tuesday evening, February 18. The Oregon plan will be used.

Sara Ennis '37, and Mildred Olp '37, will represent Ursinus arguing the negative side of the question, Resolved: that Congress should be empowered to override by a two-thirds majority vote, decisions of the Supreme Court declaring acts of Congress unconstitutional.

Ruth Roth '38, and Rita Harley '38, were hostesses to the Women's Debating Club in Maples Hall on Monday night, Feb. 10. A forum led by Dorothy Witmer '37, and Sarah Helen Keyser '36, on socialized medicine was the feature of the meeting. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

The question, Resolved that Congress should be empowered to override, by a two-third vote, decisions of the Supreme Court declaring acts of Congress unconstitutional, was debated by Rosemont College and the Ursinus College Women's Debating team on Tuesday, Feb. 11. The affirmative was upheld by Mildred Olp '37, Elizabeth Ballinger '38, and Gertrude Goldberg '38, of Ursinus, and the negative by Rita Wenger, Dorothy Durning and Phyllis Finnegan of Rosemont. Janet Dougherty, also of Rosemont, acted as chairman, and the judges were Miss Gladys Barnes '30, of Ursinus, Mr. William Munroe, and Mr. Frank Melvin. The decision was given to Rosemont, 3-0.

Debaters Meet Three Teams on First Trip

Lehigh, Muhlenberg and Albright
Hosts to Forensics

DIVIDE ON WINS AND LOSSES

The Ursinus debaters spent a busy week abroad, meeting nearby Pennsylvania colleges in debates on three successive days. In each case, Ursinus upheld the negative side of the question: "Resolved, that the Constitution should be amended so that Congress may control intra-state commerce."

On Wednesday, February 12, Douglas Mertz '38, and Henry Krieger '38, met the Lehigh affirmative team at Bethlehem. The debate was conducted under the Oregon system and no decision was rendered.

The following day, at Muhlenberg, Ursinus won the decision in a debate conducted under the Oxford system. The Ursinus negative team consisted of Rubin Levin '36, Douglas Mertz '38, and Henry Krieger '38. This meet was scheduled as a dual debate, but Muhlenberg was unable to appear at Ursinus due to bad weather conditions.

The same team which met Lehigh lost an Oregon style decision to Albright on Friday, February 14, at Reading. This visit will be returned when the Albright negative team meets Ursinus here tonight. Richard Yahraes '38, and Eugene Shelley '37 will argue the affirmative side.

Two teams of debaters will leave on Wednesday for a three-day trip through the central part of the state to debate the question: "Resolved, that Congress should be empowered to over-rule by a two-thirds vote decisions of the Supreme Court, declaring acts of Congress unconstitutional."

A second trip scheduled this week will find an Ursinus team debating Bucknell, Juniata, and St. Francis College. Eli Broidy '38, Eugene Shelley '37, Paul Shelly '36, Henry Alderfer '39, and Elmer Schmitt '36, will make the trip.

Ehlman to Speak Here February 27

Ursinus Graduate Will Address
Students During Religious Emphasis Week

TOPICS NOT YET ANNOUNCED

The Christian organizations have secured as their speaker for Religious Emphasis week the Rev. Dobbs F. Ehlman, Ph. D., of Indianapolis, Indiana.

Rev. Ehlman was graduated from Ursinus in the class of 1923. From here he went to the Central Theological Seminary at Dayton, Ohio, and after his graduation from that institution, he went as a missionary to China and Japan in 1929. Returning to this country a few years later, he took graduate work in philosophy at the University of Chicago, and was awarded the degree of Ph. D., in 1933. Since that time he has been the pastor of the Second Evangelical and Reformed Church at Indianapolis.

Because Rev. Ehlman is himself an Ursinus graduate, and is well acquainted with the views and needs of young people, the organizations cordially welcome him during his visit to the campus.

Religious Emphasis week will be observed at Ursinus on February 25, 26, and 27. There will be discussions on Tuesday and Thursday evenings at 6:30 p. m., and a short chapel address on Wednesday morning. The topics for these occasions have not yet been announced by Dr. Ehlman.

Johnny Peiffer's Brunswick Orchestra Plays for Lorelei

The annual Lorelei dance held in the Thompson-Gay Gymnasium, Saturday night, attracted a large crowd despite the inclement weather. Over eighty couples danced to the music of Johnny Peiffer and his Hotel Brunswick orchestra.

The Gymnasium was decorated in keeping with St. Valentine's Day. A combination of hearts, streamers, and silhouettes in red and white added to the attractiveness of the whole. Lights shone through red crepe paper at the windows. A giant lighted heart was suspended in the middle.

Chaperones for the affair included Dr. and Mrs. Marcus Old, Dr. and Mrs. John Mauchly, and Dr. Reginald S. Sibbald. The committee who planned the annual dance were Nancy Pugh '36, chairman, Eleanor Bothell '37, Ida Trout '37, Oscar Freas '36, and Elmer Gaumer '37.

Grizzly Nine to Play Fourteen
Games; Six Track Meets

FRESHMEN ARE TO BE ELIGIBLE

Schedules for the two major spring sports, baseball and track, were released for publication today by R. C. Johnson, director of athletics.

The veterans of the bat will go through a fourteen game schedule, six of which will be played at home. All of last year's opponents appear on the 1936 card except Rutgers. Six of the tilts are league games.

The Villanova game, to be played on the home diamond, will open the season on April 15. The season will end June 6, Alumni Day, with Temple as the visiting team.

On account of the new ruling, freshmen will be allowed to participate in both baseball and track. This action will result in a junior varsity baseball team, composed of both freshmen and players from other classes.

Track Card Enlarged

Six meets appear on the 1936 track schedule instead of five, as last year. The extra meet is a conference one, and will include teams from all the schools in the regular football conference. It will be the first of its kind ever held.

Another unique triangular meet will be held on the home track. Ursinus, Gettysburg, and Drexel will be the participants. Only one man from each team will be entered in any one event.

The complete schedule follows:

GUEST, GRIMM, BRADFORD LOSE

The Ursinus Grapplers journeyed to Baltimore and took over the Johns Hopkins wrestling team, on Saturday night, 19-11. Although the visiting Grizzlies won five of the eight matches, it was not until Tiny Knoll had thrown his man in the final tilt that the winning margin was realized.

Knoll Scores Second Pin of Season

After Barnett had managed to squeeze out a scant time advantage over Johnny Grimm, the score stood 14-11 favoring the Bears and the heavyweight bout coming up was to be the deciding one. Tiny Knoll tore out of his corner and in short time had his famous headlock and arm hold on Samble. The John Hopkins heavy, however, was not to be done away with so early and he wiggled out. Knoll came right back with a crotch and half nelson and, after a short tussle, used his bulk to pin Samble's blades to the rubber.

Gene Bradford again ran into McDaniels and this time fell victim to the crafty leg wrestler via a pin.

Captain Bassman Returns to Form

Captain Reds Bassman made up for the loss in the 155-pound class by putting away Clantice in less than four and a half minutes. The Ursinus leader was complete mas-

Editorial Comment

ATHLETES AND COLLEGE POLICY

By action of the Scholarship Committee several months ago the average to be maintained by all holders of scholarships was raised to a minimum of 75. In some quarters it was feared that this ruling would result in the withdrawal of aid from many of our athletes, a loss our teams can ill afford at present.

With the start of the second semester came the publication of the ineligible list and the necessity for completing financial arrangements with the treasurer of the College. Because of one or both of these reasons a number of our best athletes faced the necessity of leaving school or making satisfactory arrangements with the College authorities in order to remain in school. Claims were advanced on both sides with the weight of justification resting with the Administration.

Nevertheless, popular feeling was stirred up; anger, resentment, unintelligent sentiment displayed themselves. Obviously, such feelings are not conducive to a healthy, cooperative spirit between Administration and student body. What is regrettable about the whole affair is its avoidability if both sides would honestly search out the causes. The Weekly offers its analysis of the situation in these terms.

Two causes seem primarily responsible for the misunderstanding and conflict—a wholly unjustified attitude on the part of students, and the lack of a recognizable, clear-cut athletic policy on the part of the College.

There is a widely prevalent fixation in American youth that colleges owe them an education, and from this has resulted an attitude that, if bills cannot be paid, the college should carry students on credit until they can pay. But a College, it must be remembered, is a business organization too, and the obligations due it are just as binding as those due a bank. To show resentment toward the College because of a misconception of its true character is grossly unfair.

The other source of discontent arises from a lack of knowledge or a misunderstanding of the College's attitude toward its athletics. So long as colleges are to sponsor intercollegiate athletic competition as being both a proper function and a means of advertisement, we feel the players who represent them should be compensated. Competition is severe; training involves long hours of hard, gruelling work; always there are chances for painful injury; no longer can the games be played just "for the love of them." Therefore, we look for a declaration of policy along one of these lines: either award "athletic grants" for athletic ability and revert to a 70 average instead of terming the aid "scholarship"; or make available sufficient funds to attract students with enough ability to maintain a 75 average and to play a good game of football and basketball; or insist upon a 75 average being maintained by the type of athletes we are securing at present and perhaps, although not necessarily, suffer a loss of athletic prestige.

We applauded one of the Southern conferences when a few months ago they voted to publicize the amounts they devote to athletic scholarships, for when everybody knows the facts there can be little room for the bad feeling we are deprecating.

We want to see the cards played face up, but we must also add a caution. It is not to be implied herefrom that we favor awarding athletic grants unconditionally. The sideshow must not hide the main tent. For when those athletic grants exceed the amount used to foster true scholarship, all sense of proportion has been lost. What sense could there be in aiding an athlete through school only to find, at the end of four years, that he has little more than a sweater, a certificate, a letter, and a fistful of newspaper clippings, yet is manifestly unfit to do any worthwhile work in the world?

INDICTMENT OF STUDENT COUNCIL

The Weekly directs the attention of the President of Student Council to his official duty of calling and presiding over all meetings and fulfilling all duties as set forth in the Constitution. Article 5, section 1, of that document says: "A regular meeting of the Council shall be held on the first Monday of every calendar month of the college year."

Mr. President, if our information is correct, there has been no regular meeting in either January or February. One special meeting, to which no publicity was ever officially given, was held to handle a disciplinary problem in Curtis Dormitory. And since the student body is kept in the dark about the measures taken to meet that problem, the Council is very safe from having any judgment passed upon the efficacy or justice of its methods.

We are not, however, concerned so much about this violation of constitutional duties, but wish rather to suggest to the entire Council a wider implication of its impotency and inactivity. It is pretty evident that despite your hibernation the campus has not been thrown into a state of disorganization, and we therefore question the existence of any need for a Men's Student Government Association.

Thus far this year you have been charged with doing nothing about a model class constitution, failure to consider the matter of sponsoring dances after basketball games, and utter inability to prevent two misbehavior problems in the dormitories. Now, Council, what will you offer as justification for your continuance on the campus? We want to know!

GRIZZLY GLEANINGS

During the past week or two, several of the smart guys on this campus have promulgated a type of humor which this correspondent is forced to label as distinctly "lousy," to use the colloquial.

More specifically, this fadist jokism originated in the dismal depths of Stine, which fact is sufficient to outlaw it.

However, for want of a better idea, we pass these awful emanations from distorted brains on to you via Grizzly Gleanings, though sorry be the day on which this column is forced to carry such as these.

If a high pile of hotcakes is set down before a voracious individual, and the aforesaid individual consumes said hotcakes in no minutes flat, what simile is suggested?

The answer—They went down like hotcakes!

Ha, ha, get it? See if you can stand another one.

A one-ton truck loaded with bricks is proceeding down the avenue. The bottom falls out of the truck. What simile is suggested?

They fell like a ton of bricks, you sap!

Now we pull the ace-in-the-hole. One more we'll give you, and this time you guess.

There once lived a man who died, and he went to Heaven. Upon reaching the pearly gates, he was greeted by "Sent" Peter, who said to him: "My friend, you do not want to come here, because down in Purgatory they are holding a very fine election. If you hasten, you'll make it yet, and who knows but what you'll be the President." So the man turned round and went down as fast as he could go. What simile is suggested?

GAFF from the GRIZZLY

"Buster" "Louie" Stoudt, Postmaster General, is all smiles at the present, due to the rush business which he has had in the last few evenings. There's nothing like a warm Post-Office to shelter you these cold wintry evenings.

Sorority Rushing Theme Song
"I don't know your name, but you're wonderful."

It looks as if the gals from South Hall are making a determined drive to gain the honor of "Ruby Widow" for one of its fairest representatives.

"Ye Olde Editor" of the Weekly (Kerm the Ugly to you) is more attractive than ever since losing one of his prized buck teeth. Yes, girls, and he was an eligible bid to the Lorelei until a fair damsel nabbed him "because of his rare ability to hot foot it."

Dame Luck smiled on the basketball team when their game with Muhlenberg was called off Friday night. Saturday night found them in better shape than was to be expected. No stiff joints, floor burns, etc. but what of next week? That's got nothing to do with it.

"Ginny" Fenton says normalcy has returned to the campus. Tuck's back, you know.

RAMBLING at RANDOM

I suppose the season of fraternity rushing will always be with us, and with it all its evils. But never before in the past have I seen such a great amount of hard feeling engendered by the ever-present "high pressuring," the steals of the so-called "sewed ups," and the under-cover "downing" of all fraternities but one's own. It's natural for one to try to sell one's own organization to prospective members, for it's natural to want to preserve the life of an institution that has become endeared to us; but the methods sometimes used to give this end would often make a person with a little common-sense revolt against rather than join the group using such means.

The main cause of all this lies in the fact that rushing begins too soon. A first-year man is usually unfit to make such a decision for himself and is too liable to follow the masses or to be influenced by other factors that should not count. Proof of this can be found in what I think is an evident fact, namely, that there is rarely a "misfit" among fellows who have waited until their sophomore year to join a fraternity. A freshman is led astray by the seeming glamour of being a "fraternity man" and forgets the things that count—such as "What can this fraternity do for us?"; "What can I do for this fraternity?"; "Are the members of this fraternity the kind I would want to call brothers?" In short, they fail to analyze and evaluate on the basis of the really important facts.

If Ursinus organizations did not bid freshmen until their second year, the phases of rushing that disgust sensible people would be automatically destroyed by the nullifying of the power of "high pressure" methods. If clean, honest and "above board" methods of rushing cannot become established permanently, it would be better to do away with fraternities altogether.

COLLEGIATE SPOTLIGHT

Dr. Ray E. Baker, professor of Sociology at New York University, in a six-year study of 860 students and parents concerning marriage, has made the following general findings:

1. Economic status is of little concern.
2. Girls prefer husbands with greater intelligence than their own.
3. Members of both sexes want mates with the same or better moral standards.
4. Members of both sexes want mates with good health.
5. About 500 percent of the people are willing to marry out of their own faith.

At Bucknell, the student directory lists a Bull, Crabb, Eglit, three Foxes, three Martins, and a Swan. But fortunately there is a Hunter on hand to take care of the situation. The color scheme is also well developed with four Browns, three Greens, and two Whites; whereas, for vocations, they can furnish a Carpenter, two Cooks, a Farmer, a Gardner, three Weavers, a Brewer, and two Bakers.

From the Daily Texan we get the solemn report that if all the men in the college were equally divided among the women, each co-ed would get exactly 2.11093 parts of masculinity. Page Prof. Manning to get the probability of drawing at least one good one.

CAMPI CURRENTS

A ban on the Temple Owl, scheduled to appear tomorrow, has been banned by Pres. Charles E. Beury because of a caricature of Pres. Franklin D. Roosevelt drawn for the magazine cover by a staff member. It was termed "bad taste" and discourteous to the President, who will receive an honorary degree from the University at the convocation on Saturday.

Dr. Harold Willis Dodds, president of Princeton, speaking at the University of Pennsylvania's mid-year convocation, declared that America's "bold acceptance of the democratic principle tended to turn education into a leveling process, when, in fact, it partakes of the aristocratic. Our idea of education has been extremely democratic. We conceive it to be the duty of the State to provide complete educational opportunities for everyone. We talk about mass education, where there can be no such thing. There is no education except the education of individuals."

Dr. Julian Obermann, professor of Semitic languages at Yale, has discovered the oldest known written psalm, a cuneiform inscription in the Canaanite language from about 1500 B. C. It was uncovered at Ras Shamra, in northern Syria, a few years ago. This find definitely proves that the origin of the Hebrew psalmery was not Egypt and Babylonia, as students try to prove, but right 'next door' to Palestine.

Representatives of 500 American colleges and universities met on January 16, at the Hotel Roosevelt in New York City, to discuss "The Integrity of the American College." One of the leading addresses of this annual meeting of the Association of American colleges was entitled "Academic Freedom and Academic Tenure," delivered by President James L. McConaughy of Wesleyan University.

Dr. Einstein has taken out his first papers for citizenship in the United States. When he has lived in this country for five years, and has had his first papers for two years, he may apply for full citizenship. This will be in 1938. Dr. Einstein took up his duties at the Institute for Advanced Study at Princeton in October, 1933, when he exiled himself from Germany because of the Nazi dictatorship.

Columbia College speech laboratory has recorded speeches given by Al Smith in Washington, Gov. Eugene Talmadge in Macon, and Gov. Alfred Landon in Topeka, Kan. These, together with phonograph records to be made of political speeches to be given this summer, will be analyzed by public speaking classes for composition, method of address and delivery.

Experimenters at the University of California at Los Angeles say that the athletic ability of men entering college is increasing yearly.

Dr. Lloyd Arnold of the University of Illinois predicts that vaccination by vaccine pills on tablets will be the method used in the future. Reminds us of the cartoon called "Born Thirty Years Too Soon" or something like that.

Spinach is the fastest selling vegetable in the student cafeteria at Georgia's Emory University. All of which goes to prove that even college students read "Popeye."

Some good advice from the Boston University news:
To the thin: Don't eat fast.
To the fat: Don't eat; fast.

A classic now going the rounds of the school papers and supposed to have come originally from Ohio State Lantern runs like this:

One little boy suggests to another "Let's play going to college."
"All right," retorts the other, "I'll go get me a pipe and you get a checkbook."

Remarkable how these kids catch on, isn't it?

THE MAIL BOX

To the Editor:

When the Ursinus basketball team opened its season with two victories, and one of them over the highly touted Gettysburg Bullets, everything looked bright for Ursinus' chances in the league competition. But since then the team has failed to win a game, losing even to Lebanon Valley, the lowest in the league.

To whatever cause some will attribute this failure, I am sure of one thing—Coach Kenneth Hasbagen cannot be held to blame. He has worked with the boys as no coach in recent years has done. He knows basketball first hand and knows how to teach it.

What is more he has some good material. It is obvious where the trouble is. I do not believe the players take the interest in the sport that they should or that they keep fighting as they should.

To the team, I say—start playing ball like you can play it. You owe it to the school, to the coach, and to yourselves.

Class of '28

To the Editor:

We want to take this means to express our appreciation to Dr. Calvin D. Yost, Jr., for arranging the trip to Philadelphia on Thursday evening to see Walter Hampden make his final appearance in "Cyrano de Bergerac."

Although we are located within thirty miles of Philadelphia, there have not been as many trips of this kind planned and carried out in the past as we should like. We are especially glad to have this opportunity to take advantage of the fine entertainment Philadelphia has to offer and sincerely hope that Dr. Yost and others of our professors will sponsor similar trips in the future.

Sincerely and gratefully

Members of the Student Body.

CARD OF THANKS

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Barnes wish to express their thanks to the students in Brodbeck and Curtis Halls for their contributions which made possible the purchase of the new cleaner now being used in their rooms.

Each puff less acid—Luckies are A LIGHT SMOKE OF RICH, RIPE-BODIED TOBACCO

For twenty-five years the research staff of The American Tobacco Company has worked steadily to produce a measurably finer cigarette—namely, a cigarette having a minimum of volatile components, with an improved richness of taste—"A LIGHT SMOKE."

We believe that Lucky Strike Cigarettes embody a number of genuinely basic improvements, and that all these improvements combine to produce a superior cigarette—a modern cigarette, a cigarette made of rich, ripe-bodied tobaccos—A Light Smoke.

Luckies are less acid

Recent chemical tests show* that other popular brands have an excess of acidity over Lucky Strike of from 53% to 100%.

DR. JOHN COOPER DISCUSSES CRIMINAL REHABILITATION

Y. M.-Y. W. Hear Pen Educator Tell
Of Graterford Methods

An interesting insight into the problem of criminal rehabilitation was given on Wednesday evening, February 12, by Dr. John A. Cooper, head of the education department at the Graterford Eastern Penitentiary. Sponsored by the Y. M.-Y. W. C. A. organizations, Dr. Cooper pointed out first the consistently poor background, low intelligence quotient, and immigrant status of the average criminal.

How the penitentiary is helping this class, Dr. Cooper answered by describing the system at Graterford. Every new prisoner is examined by a series of interviewers, who then subsequently cooperate in formulating the educational program of each prisoner.

Through the various education departments at Graterford an effort is made to instill in the prisoners the proper use of leisure time, develop proper moral standards, and prepare him for a profession.

Three University of Alabama students have been given self-help jobs as policemen in Tuscaloosa to direct traffic around schools. Other students with N. Y. A. jobs will act as policemen to direct traffic on campus.

Although the drive for band funds is now inactive, it has not ended and will be continued until the end of the present school year.

The total contributions up to the present time approximate the $300 mark. Though still far from the $1000 goal set by the committee, the returns are very gratifying.

The band members and booster committee wish to take this opportunity to thank all those who supported the drive in any way. A list of the names of contributors outside the College is published below.

COLLEGE STUDENTS ATTEND PLAY, "CYRANO de BERGERAC"

Drama Class Sees Walter Hampden
In Famous Role

On Thursday evening, February 13, a group of forty-seven students accompanied by Dr. Calvin D. Yost, Jr., made the trip to Philadelphia to see Walter Hampden play the heroic role in "Cyrano de Bergerac."

The role of Cyrano, which has been played more than nine hundred times by the famous actor, has come to be an American theater tradition. Although Mr. Hampden is well-known for his successful acting in many of the leading Shakespearean roles, he has probably been best loved in his charming interpretation of the French wit, philosopher, poet, and soldier.

The students, most of whom are members of Dr. Yost's class in drama, made the trip in two chartered buses of the Schuylkill Valley Lines.

College Disposes of Holstein Dairy; H. Leshner Is Retained

The pure-bred Holstein dairy herd of Ursinus College has been sold to Fred Fisher, Collegeville cattle dealer.

The herd is considered to be of very good breed. In November the herd took first honors for milk production in the county cow testing association. In December the herd won second honors.

Harvey K. Leshner, farm manager and superintendent of grounds, will continue in the employ of the college as superintendent of grounds.

The college milk supply will be purchased in bulk from one of a number of local wholesale dealers who have placed bids for the contract.

For Digestion's Sake—smoke Camels

COLLEGE LIFE is a strain on the physique, with its endless demands on mind and body. Often, as a result, digestion suffers. Smoking Camels eases the strain of the busy whirl—promotes good digestion.

Natural digestive action
notably increased by smoking Camels

People in every walk of life get "keyed up"...live too hurriedly. The effects on digestion are known to all! In this connection, it is an interesting fact that smoking a Camel during or between meals tends to stimulate and promote digestion. Enjoy Camel's mildness... the feeling of well-being fostered by Camel's matchless blend of costlier tobaccos.

the diners. William says of Camels: "Camels and good food go together. Our patrons naturally prefer quality tobaccos, judging by the popularity that Camels enjoy here. So we try to keep well stocked with Camels."

IN BRITISH GUIANA—the LaVarres ford a river. "Camels make any meal digest easier," says William LaVarre. Mrs. LaVarre adds: "Camels help my digestion, in the jungle or dining at home."

GEORGE LOTT, tennis champion, knows how over-exertion strikes at digestion. He says: "I smoke a lot. Camels have a beneficial effect on digestion. They help me to enjoy what I eat and get more good out of it."

St. Joseph's College Beats Grizzlies, 42-24

Hawks Get Off to Early Lead;
Kenny High Scorer

BODLEY HEADS BEAR TALLY

The Ursinus basketball team lost out to a lightning fast St. Joseph's quintet 42-24, Tuesday, on the Philadelphia court. As usual, St. Joe's depended on speed to make up for their handicap in height in subduing the Grizzlies.

The Hawks opened the scoring with a two-pointer and shortly after added another. The Bears retaliated, and although not tying the score, they brought their total close to that of the home team. Up until the end of the first ten minutes of play, the Bears managed to hold their opponents down and the scoring remained close.

Hawks Swoop to Lead

Toward the close of the first half, the Hawks began sinking them from all corners of the court while the Bears, with their poor passing could not keep possession of the ball. At the close of this period, St. Joseph's was leading 20-10.

Grizzlies Fail to Rally

Not taking advantage of their height, the Grizzlies could not muster up a big enough rally to overcome the ten point lead. In fact, the Bears fell further behind, although they scored more points in the second half than in the first. Smalley and McMeninmen came through for the home team in this period while the two Kenney's also continued their swing for the Hawks.

Bodley, was the mainstay for the Grizzlies as he found the basket on four long shots making his total eight points. The Bears were at their best in foul shots, converting all but two of the free tosses.

CURTIS HIGH DOWNS FROSH 34-27 IN SECOND-HALF ATTACK

Fast Passes Keep Visitors Ahead;
Bill Power Stars for Grizzlies

Coach Kellett's Ursinus frosh team went down to defeat at the hands of a sharp-shooting aggregation from Curtis High of New York by the score of 34-27, on Friday evening.

The game was close during the entire first half; the lead saw-sawed back and forth until "Hum" Quintana dribbled in under the basket with seconds remaining to be played to give the visitors a 15-14 lead at half-time. Never did the Bears regain the lead in the second half when the high boys found themselves and enjoyed a 30-19 lead early in the fourth period.

A belated spurt netted the Red and Black eight counters, but not enough to give them the victory.

The Curtis boys had a fast passing attack and were very adept at turn-around shots. "Hec" Quintana was the individual scoring star for the visitors with five field goals and one foul, all in the last half. Fernandez and Midgley followed with eight and seven, respectively. Captain Bill Power led his team in scoring as well as in general floor work. He had ten points to show for the night's fracas. Eshbach and Dunn had five each while "Robe" Ehret had four.

Erdman Leads Ursinus Invaders
With 12 Points

J-V'S LOSE IN THE LAST HALF

The Ursinus coed basketball team chalked up another victory last Saturday morning, Feb. 15, when they defeated the Drexel coeds on the foreign court by the close score of 18-15. The second team, however, was defeated by the Drexel scrubs, 27-23.

The teams started off in nip and tuck fashion and the score during the first half gave all indications of a close match. The Red and Black soon began to click under the new court rules and at the half they had a 12-9 edge on their opponents.

The game grew more tense in the second half when Drexel endeavored to gain the lead. With each basket they scored, Ursinus had one to match it, thus making the final score 18-15 with Silvia Erdman emerging from the fray as highest scorer with 12 points to her credit.

The line-up:

DERRITES IN FIRST PLACE IN DORM COURT LEAGUE

Leaders Encounter Strong Five in Curtis Tussle

Derr Hall took the lead in the inter-dorm basketball league during the week and seems to be on the way to the first-half championship.

Stine eked out a 19-18 victory over Freeland when Abe Lipkin put a Frank Merriwell touch to the game by tapping the ball in as the final whistle blew. Staucer and McLaughlin had eight points each for the victors while Clouse pulled the same number for the losers.

Derr conquered Day 27-23, Curtis walloped Stine 38-20, and Brodbeck slaughtered Freeland 43-14. High scorers for Tuesday were Bonkoski of Day, 11, Freas and Bradford of Derr, 9 and 6, respectively, Porambo and Halm of Curtis, 12 and 10, Schaffer of Stine, 9, and Pancoast and Stoudt of Brodbeck, 13 and 10.

Brodbeck had little trouble defeating Day, 34-17, but Derr found Curtis rather tough, 29-26, in an interesting game. Thursday's leading men were Pancoast and Stoudt, 11 and 7, Fenimore, 8, Gaumer and Bradford, 10 apiece, and Quay, 11.

Brodbeck scored at will against Stine, 45-7, while Curtis won from Day on a forfeit, 1-0. Pancoast had 15 and Leeron had 10 to lead the men of Brodbeck.

The standing of the teams:

	Won	Lost	P. C.
Derr	3	0	1.000
Curtis	3	1	.750
Brodbeck	3	1	.750
Freeland	1	2	.333

ter of the struggle from the outset and it was only Clantice's strength that kept the bout going as long as it did.

Bears' Lightweights Come Through

For the first time in at least the past five years both the 118 and 126 pounders scored points for the Grizzlies in the same meet. Usually the heavier classes had to make up for the losses in these two matches but Hayashi and Reynolds came through with substantial time advantages over their opponents.

Lipkin's superior strength and knowledge of the situation aided him in gaining a time advantage over Edwards. Like McDaniels, Edwards used his legs constantly and several times in the mix-up it was not known who had the advantage.

Guest put up the best defensive bout of the meet against Capt. Gelber as he forced the John Hopkins 135 pounder to the limit in order to keep him under.

The summaries:

118-pound — Hayashi defeated Hoffman. Time advantage, 5.57.

126-pound — Reynolds defeated Rosenstein. Time advantage, 6.47.

135-pound—Captain Gelber defeated Guest. Time advantage, 4.23.

145-pound—Lipkin won from Edwards. Time advantage, 2.29.

155-pound — McDaniels threw Bradford, Lehigh Crucifix. Time, 7.37.

165-pound — Captain Bassman threw Clantice, arm bar and leg scissors. Time, 4.25.

175-pound — Barnett defeated Grimm. Time advantage, 1.07.

Unlimited—Knoll threw Samble, crotch and half nelson, Time, 2.25.

WILCOX DISCUSSES FRENCH EDUCATION AT CLUB MEET

A talk by Mr. Alfred M. Wilcox on French education featured the monthly meeting of the French Club last week. Mr. Wilcox pointed out that education in France is quite different from that in America. In France there are six years of primary education which are free and compulsory and seven years of secondary education for which fees must be paid. The French secondary school in the lycee, corresponding to high school and the first two years of college in this country. It leads to the Baccalauréat which is not, however, equivalent to our A. B. degree. Three or more years of university work leads to a "license" which is equal to something between our A. B. and A. M. degrees.

Teachers in France are well trained in subject matter and are less concerned with pedagogy than in America. They believe in less attention to the individual and more to subject matter, whereas Americans emphasize individual attention.
